The Plaintiff further alleges that the City of Cambridge has demonstrated a custom and policy of deliberate indifference to the constitutional rights of its citizens.

FACTS

- 10. On the afternoon of May 6, 2003, the Plaintiff Andrew Jeune, age 17, was walking towards his father's office in Central Square, dressed in a hooded sweatshirt and jeans.
- 11. He was jogging slowly, so that he would not keep his father waiting, when the Defendant Officers McElroy and Aquino approached him.
- 12. The Defendants told the Plaintiff to "come here."

- 13. The Defendants then informed the Plaintiff that there had been an attempted breaking and entering in the area and they were going to arrest him.
- 14. Defendant McElroy instructed the Plaintiff to get up against their police car.
- 15. While Defendant McElroy left momentarily to look down a nearby alley, Defendant Aquino told the Plaintiff to put his hands against the car, and then began to feel his stomach.
- 16. Defendant Aquino proceeded to search the Plaintiff's pockets and pulled out a comb, chap-stick, a subway pass, a pack of gum, ten dollars, and several papers that the Plaintiff was carrying from school.
- 17. After completing the search, Defendant Aquino put the Plaintiff's hands behind his back and handcuffed him.
- 18. The handcuffs were extremely tight around the Plaintiff's wrist and they began to impede his circulation.
- 19. When Plaintiff informed Defendant Aquino that he was beginning to feel faint, Aquino swore at him, calling him a "wuss," or weakling.
- 20. When the he complained that he was experiencing symptoms of an asthma attack,

  Defendant Aquino told him to stop whining and acting like "a little bitch."
- 21. The Plaintiff continued to tell Defendant Aquino that he was feeling more and more lightheaded.
- 22. He then stated that the Defendant was doing this to him "because he is black."
- 23. Defendant Aquino replied "you think you have it bad nigger, I have to deal with people calling me a spic everyday."

- 24. Defendant McElroy then returned to the scene of the arrest and brought with him the alleged victim of the breaking and entering.
- 25. Defendant McElroy instructed the alleged victim to look at the Plaintiff to determine if she could identify him.
- 26. The woman was unable to make a positive identification. Nonetheless, the Defendants informed the Plaintiff that he was under arrest for breaking and entering despite the lack of probable cause to arrest.
- 27. Defendant Officer Greenridge then arrived with the transport vehicle.
- 28. Defendant Greenridge asked the Plaintiff what was wrong, and when the Plaintiff told him he was having an asthma attack, Greenridge told him to "stop fucking lying" and said he must be some sort of "bitch" to be complaining about tight handcuffs.
- 29. He was taken to the police station, booked by Defendant McNeil, and read his rights by Defendant Hogan.
- 30. The Plaintiff was then transported to Cambridge Hospital by Officer Greenridge, where he was handcuffed to his bed.
- 31. He continued to complain that the cuffs were too tight and now requested that he be allowed to speak with one of his parents.
- 32. Another Officer then entered the room and slammed the Plaintiff down onto the bed, pushing his head into a guardrail.
- 33. The Plaintiff continued to object to this treatment and, after a short time, another Officer entered the room, tied a strap around Plaintiff's arm, and secured him to the bed.
- 34. Finally, he was led from the hospital room towards the exit by several Officers.

- 35. On the way out the door, one of the Officers kneed him in the back, while the others continued to curse at him.
- 36. Once outside the door, the Plaintiff was pushed into a concrete barrier. Since he was still handcuffed, he lost his balance and landed on his leg.
- 37. When the Plaintiff complained, the Officers told him to "shut up."
- 38. The Plaintiff was then lifted off the ground towards the wagon by his neck.
- 39. When the Plaintiff asked why he was being choked, an Officer said "maybe this will teach you to go straight to booking instead of wasting our time." He was then forced into the wagon.
- 40. Once back at the police station, the Plaintiff was interrogated and then placed in a cell.
- 41. Finally, he was allowed to make a phone call, but could not reach his parents.
- 42. He also learned that his bail hadn't been set, and thus he was forced to spend the night in jail.
- 43. Subsequently, all criminal charges were dismissed.
- 44. As a result of this incident, the Plaintiff suffered physical and emotional injuries.
